What did people say about last summer's institute with Debbie?

"I have really enjoyed every minute of the sessions. You really kept me engaged all day long."

"Thank you for today. I've learned a lot and like how you make everything simple and fun."

"As always... fantastic. No matter how many times I see/hear/visit/attend your workshops, I walk away with wonderful ideas. Your energize me and make me want to go back to school in July!"

"I am going to make my word wall more interactive. No more round robin reading in my small groups!"

"I enjoyed sharing the three days with you. They have been great, and I look forward to coming home and starting to use all of these things. I'm glad to have all these door prizes, too. I know I will use them. I wish you the best and hope you will come to Iceland one day to visit my classroom."

"I'm really happy that we learned about you from your books and decided to travel to Houston to hear you. I have learned so much!"

"Seeing small group in action helped me so much. The tools you provided will help me with my small group instruction."

"I have been to several of your workshops over the years and love that you are always growing and changing."

"These days with you have been fantastic! My head is buzzing with ideas. I can't wait to get organized for small groups using the things you shared."
